Kia ora, Talofa Lava, Bula Vinaka, Malo e Lelei, Fakalofa lahi atu, Nihao, Namaste, Chao, Kia orana and greetings! My name is Naomi Rosedale and I am thrilled to be joining Papakura Intermediate as a Core Teacher. I have been in education for the past 16 years as a classroom teacher, literacy co-ordinator and educational researcher. I have a passion for culture, people, and language, having travelled widely, both locally and internationally.

Born in the United Kingdom, I grew up in Africa and immigrated to New Zealand 20 years ago. My family and I settled in the beautiful seaside town of Waiuku (25 minutes from Papakura) where we love to kayak, fish and spend time outdoors. I have two grown children, Antonia and Jordan, and three gorgeous grandchildren: David, Isobel and Nathaniel. Our family is very close and we love doing life together!

I recently graduated from the University of Auckland with a doctorate in Education and have a Masters Degree in Educational Leadership. I am super excited to be team teaching this year in the Kaino whānau where we aim to leverage all our individual and collective strengths and skills for the benefit of students, their families and our school community.

Thank you for the opportunity to partner together in 2021 and for being so warmly welcomed into the P.I. “Home of Innovative Learners and Leaders”!
